Psalm 3: A Psalm of David when he fled from Absalom his son.

P: LORD, how they have increased who trouble me!

C: Many are they who rise up against me.

P: Many are they who say of me,

C: "There is no help for him in God." Selah

P: But You, O LORD, are a shield for me,

C: My glory and the One who lifts up my head.

P: I cried to the LORD with my voice,

C: And He heard me from His holy hill. Selah

P: I lay down and slept;

C; I awoke, for the LORD sustained me.

P: I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people

C: Who have set themselves against me all around.

P: Arise, O LORD; Save me, O my God!

C: For You have struck all my enemies on the cheekbone;

You have broken the teeth of the ungodly.

P: Salvation belongs to the LORD.

C: Your blessing is upon Your people. Selah

SCRIPTURE READING

Luke 19:1-10

Then Jesus entered and passed through Jericho. Now behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus who was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. And he sought to see who Jesus was, but could not because of the crowd, for he was of short stature. So he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him, for He was going to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up and saw him, and said to him, "Zacchaeus, make haste and come down, for today I must stay at your house." So he made haste and came down, and received Him joyfully. But when they saw it, they all complained, saying, "He has gone to be a guest with a man who is a sinner." Then Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord, I give half of my goods to the poor; and if I have taken anything from anyone by false accusation, I restore fourfold." And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham; "for the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost."
