WEBSITE UPGRADES FOR ILC.

EDU: Over the past year a significant upgrade to the Immanuel website, ilc.edu, has been in the works. This exciting and enhanced update is now live to the public. The website is designed to be used by personal computer and especially by mobile devices as use of these is becoming more common. One may also subscribe to receive daily emails of content that changes, e.g., Immanuel's daily bulletin and audio of the daily chapels. Streaming and archived videos of campus events are also still available. Be sure to browse through the website with its many features.

BOYS' DORM SUPERVISOR: After being the boys' dorm supervisor at Immanuel for five years, Brian Fox will now be serving as a teacher at our CLC congregation in Clarkston, WA. Gus Falkenberg from Eau Claire, WI, will now be filling this dorm supervisor role starting this coming academic year. May the Lord bless them both in thei

Lamentations 3:22-33

Is there a "silver lining" in the dark clouds of afflictions? The prophet Jeremiah declares that no matter how great the suffering and sadness was for the people of Jerusalem after the destruction of their beloved city, there is still cause for joy "because the LORD'S compassions fail not. They are new every morning."

22 Through the Lord's mercies we are not consumed, Because His compassions fail not. 23 They are new every morning; Great is Your faithfulness. 24 "The Lord is my portion," says my soul, "Therefore I hope in Him!" 25 The Lord is good to those who wait for Him, To the soul who seeks Him. 26 It is good that one should hope and wait quietly For the salvation of the Lord. 27 It is good for a man to bear The yoke in his youth. 28 Let him sit alone and keep silent, Because God has laid it on him; 29 Let him put his mouth in the dust— There may yet be hope. 30 Let him give his cheek to the one who strikes him, And be full of reproach. 31 For the Lord will not cast off forever. 32 Though He causes grief, Yet He will show compassion According to the multitude of His mercies. 33 For He does not afflict willingly, Nor grieve the children of men.

II Corinthians 8:1-9, 13-14

Paul holds up two shining examples of selfless generosity. First, the Macedonians, who, although severely tried and extremely poor, were truly generous with their gifts. How? "They first gave themselves to the Lord." The second example is our Lord Jesus, who gave all that He had so that we might have the riches of heaven.

8 Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia: 2 that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded in the riches of their liberality. 3 For I bear witness that according to their ability, yes, and beyond their ability, they were freely willing, 4 imploring us with much urgency that we would receive the gift and the fellowship of the ministering to the saints. 5 And not only as we had hoped, but they first gave themselves to the Lord, and then to us by the will of God. 6 So we urged Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also complete this grace in you as well. 7 But as you abound in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all diligence, and in your love for us—see that you abound in this grace also. 8 I speak not by commandment, but I am testing the sincerity of your love by the diligence of others. 9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that you through His poverty might become rich.

DEATH STRIKES AGAIN!

I: With Death Comes Mourning.

II: But with Jesus, Comes Hope.

21 Now when Jesus had crossed over again by boat to the other side, a great multitude gathered to Him; and He was by the sea. 22 And behold, one of the rulers of the synagogue came, Jairus by name. And when he saw Him, he fell at His feet 23 and begged Him earnestly, saying, "My little daughter lies at the point of death. Come and lay Your hands on her, that she may be healed, and she will live." 24 So Jesus went with him, and a great multitude followed Him and thronged Him.

35 While He was still speaking, some came from the ruler of the synagogue's house who said, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any further?" 36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, He said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Do not be afraid; only believe." 37 And He permitted no one to follow Him except Peter, James, and John the brother of James. 38 Then He came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and saw a tumult and those who wept and wailed loudly. 39 When He came in, He said to them, "Why make this commotion and weep? The child is not dead, but sleeping." 40 And they ridiculed Him. But when He had put them all outside, He took the father and the mother of the child, and those who were with Him, and entered where the child was lying. 41 Then He took the child by the hand, and said to her, "Talitha, cumi," which is translated, "Little girl, I say to you, arise." 42 Immediately the girl arose and walked, for she was twelve years of age. And they were overcome with great amazement. 43 But He commanded them strictly that no one should know it, and said that something should be given her to eat.
