Scripture Readings:

Leviticus 19: 1-2; 15-18

The LORD through Moses expounds on two commandments, the 8th and the 5th. The holy God expects perfect holiness from us in His Law. Yet He who expects His people to be holy also reminds us: "I am the LORD." The name LORD (Jehovah) reminds His people of His covenant promise of the Messiah (Savior) who was to come and the forgiveness of sins we received through Him.

19 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying, 2 "Speak to all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say to them: 'You shall be holy, for I the Lord your God am holy. 15 'You shall do no injustice in judgment. You shall not be partial to the poor, nor honor the person of the mighty. In righteousness you shall judge your neighbor. 16 You shall not go about as a talebearer among your people; nor shall you take a stand against the life of your neighbor: I am the Lord. 17 'You shall not hate your brother in your heart. You shall surely rebuke your neighbor, and not bear sin because of him. 18 You shall not take vengeance, nor bear any grudge against the children of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the Lord.

I Thessalonians 1:1-10

The Thessalonian Christians were examples of living a life of love to God and to their fellow man. Through the Gospel, the Holy Spirit worked faith in their hearts. In the joy of that faith, the Apostle Paul, his assistants and the Christians in Thessalonica served the Lord with sanctified hearts.

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers, 3 remembering without ceasing your work of faith, labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ in the sight of our God and Father, 4 knowing, beloved brethren, your election by God. 5 For our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit and in much assurance, as you know what kind of men we were among you for your sake. 6 And you became followers of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit, 7 so that you became examples to all in Macedonia and Achaia who believe. 8 For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place. Your faith toward God has gone out, so that we do not need to say anything. 9 For they themselves declare concerning us what manner of entry we had to you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, 10 and to wait for His Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead, even Jesus who delivers us from the wrath to come.

PEACE THRU CHRIST LUTHERAN WELCOMES YOU!

We thank God for this blessed privilege to share the Good News of our salvation with you this morning. Jesus lived a life of perfect love toward His Father and toward His fellowman. He is our Substitute in keeping the Law. He also loved us so much He was our Substitute in satisfying God's wrath and condemnation for our sins by being sacrificed for us on the cross. How thankful we are that God gave us His Son to REDEEM us from our sins. With hearts filled with thankful love may we love our Savior-God and each other. ## THE SPIRIT USES LAW AND GOSPEL.

I: The Spirit Brings us Face to Face with the Mirror of the Law.

II: The Spirit Brings us Face to Face with the Keeper of the Law.

34 But when the Pharisees heard that He had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together. 35 Then one of them, a lawyer, asked Him a question, testing Him, and saying, 36 "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?" 37 Jesus said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.' 38 This is the first and great commandment. 39 And the second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' 40 On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets."

HOLY COMMUNION: The Lord's Supper is being celebrated this morning. We encourage all of our members to attend this meal of forgiveness from our Savior. Since it is a confession of oneness in faith and doctrine, we ask that only members of Peace Thru Christ or of a sister congregation in the CLC come forward to partake of the Lord's Supper. If you have any questions concerning this practice called "Close Communion," please see Pastor Bernthal. Thank you.
