PEACE THRU CHRIST LUTHERAN WELCOMES YOU! We thank God that you are with us worshiping our Savior-God. We faithfully confess that forgiveness and everlasting life is a free gift for us alone through Jesus’ merit. We make it our own through faith, which is also a gift of God’s grace through the power of the Holy Spirit. You are warmly invited to come worship your Savior with us again and please sign our guest book.

HOLY COMMUNION:

The Lord’s Supper is being celebrated this morning. We encourage all of our members to attend this meal of forgiveness from our Savior. Since it is a confession of oneness in faith and doctrine, we ask that only members of Peace Thru Christ or of a sister congregation in the CLC come forward to partake of the Lord’s Supper. If you have any questions concerning this practice called “Close Communion,” please see Pastor Bernthal. Thank you.

Ezekiel 18:1-4, 25-32

The Lord speaks to His people Israel in the land of their exile. They were complaining that God was making them suffer for the sins their fathers had committed. In so doing, they were attempting to evade their own personal responsibility for the disaster God had brought upon their nation. God makes it clear to His people that He holds each person responsible for his own actions. It was the sins of this present generation—no less than those of former ones—which had caused God to finally intervene in judgment.

However God also makes it clear that when He does act in this way, it is not because He takes pleasure in the death of the wicked. God's good and gracious will is that all may repent and live.

18 The word of the Lord came to me again, saying, 2 "What do you mean when you use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying: 'The fathers have eaten sour grapes, And the children's teeth are set on edge'? 3 "As I live," says the Lord God, "you shall no longer use this proverb in Israel. 4 "Behold, all souls are Mine; The soul of the father As well as the soul of the son is Mine; The soul who sins shall die.

25 "Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' Hear now, O house of Israel, is it not My way which is fair, and your ways which are not fair? 26 When a righteous man turns away from his righteousness, commits iniquity, and dies in it, it is because of the iniquity which he has done that he dies. 27 Again, when a wicked man turns away from the wickedness which he committed, and does what is lawful and right, he preserves himself alive. 28 Because he considers and turns away from all the transgressions which he committed, he shall surely live; he shall not die. 29 Yet the house of Israel says, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' O house of Israel, is it not My ways which are fair, and your ways which are not fair? 30 "Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways," says the Lord God. "Repent, and turn from all your transgressions, so that iniquity will not be your ruin. 31 Cast away from you all the transgressions which you have committed, and get yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. For why should you die, O house of Israel? 32 For I have no pleasure in the death of one who dies," says the Lord God. "Therefore turn and live!"

Matthew 21:28-32

It is not only God's acts of judgment which strike people as being unfair, but God's grace to sinners also seems unjust to those who feel no personal need for it. In the parable about the two sons, Jesus vividly portrays to the self-righteous Pharisees their own guilt in rejecting the way of righteousness proclaimed by John the Baptist and found only in Christ. They, need to repent and believe.

28 "But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first and said, 'Son, go, work today in my vineyard.' 29 He answered and said, 'I will not,' but afterward he regretted it and went. 30 Then he came to the second and said likewise. And he answered and said, 'I go, sir,' but he did not go. 31 Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said to Him, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you that tax collectors and harlots enter the kingdom of God before you. 32 For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him; but tax collectors and harlots believed him; and when you saw it, you did not afterward relent and believe him.

Sermon Text: Philippians 3:7-14

JESUS: A Priceless Treasure.

I: All that we are, have and can acquire without knowing Jesus is worthless trash.

II: By faith in the Gospel we obtain this Treasure as a free gift of God.

III: While here on earth we continuously strive for the eternal possession of that Treasure

7 But what things were gain to me, these I have counted loss for Christ. 8 Yet indeed I also count all things loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as rubbish, that I may gain Christ 9 and be found in Him, not having my own righteousness, which is from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith; 10 that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death, 11 if, by any means, I may attain to the resurrection from the dead. 12 Not that I have already attained, or am already perfected; but I press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me. 13 Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, 14 I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

Quench My Thirst

FROM THE BOOK: AND THEN, ETERNITY — POEMS FROM A PILGRIM
ON THE NARROW WAY. BY CHAD M. SEYBT

On the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, “If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink. He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.”

—John 7:37-38—

My heart is parched,
clinging to the palate of my soul.
Inside I'm yearning
for You to ease this burning.

Quench my thirst.
Fill me with Your Word.
Satisfy my soul
until my heart overflows.

Body of dust,
fruitless without Your loving touch.
Inside my heart groans.
Please water the seed You've sown.

Quench my thirst.
Fill me with Your love.
Satisfy my soul
until my heart overflows.

You lovingly invite me
to drink the living waters.
You wash away my sin —
I will never thirst again.
