The Confession of Sins

P: This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.

C: If we say that we have no sin, we are deceiving ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

ALL: Have mercy upon me, O God according to Your loving kindnesses; according to the multitude of Your tender-mercies, blot out my transgressions. Wash me completely from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sins. For I confess my transgressions; and my sin is ever before me. Against You, You only, have I sinned and done this evil in Your sight. Restore unto me the joy of Your salvation.

P: As we forgive those who trespass against us;

C: so let us thank You by forgiveness and kindness to our neighbors;

P: And lead us not into temptation,

C: that we may not abuse Your good gifts,

P: But deliver us from evil,

C: that we may enjoy the better blessings of eternity with You,

P: For Thine is the kingdom

C: where You bestow life and salvation

P: And the power,

C: for all things are in Your hand,

P: And the glory,

C: for the eyes of all wait on You. Thanks be to You, O God,

P: Forever and ever.

C: Never shall we look to another.

P: Amen.

C: Giving thanks to You for the past, we trust in You for the future and give You thanks in advance.

C: for if we are in our sins we only pervert Your blessings, but with Your grace all things are made new.

RESPONSIVE READING: Psalm 96, pg. 144

HYMN 793 "Sing to the Lord of Harvest"

SCRIPTURE READINGS:

Deuteronomy 8:10-20

Moses' parting words to the Children of Israel. During their desert journey from Egypt to Canaan, God humbled them and tested them in order to teach them the importance of His Word. As they now prepare to enter the Promised Land, Moses urges them to remember the LORD, their God, to praise Him and show their thanks through obedient love.

10 When you have eaten and are full, then you shall bless the Lord your God for the good land which He has given you. 11 "Beware that you do not forget the Lord your God by not keeping His commandments, His judgments, and His statutes which I command you today, 12 lest—when you have eaten and are full, and have built beautiful houses and dwell in them; 13 and when your herds and your flocks multiply, and your silver and your gold are multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied; 14 when your heart is lifted up, and you forget the Lord your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage; 15 who led you through that great and terrible wilderness, in which were fiery serpents and scorpions and thirsty land where there was no water; who brought water for you out of the flinty rock; 16 who fed you in the wilder- ness with manna, which your fathers did not know, that He might humble you and that He might test you, to do you good in the end—17 then you say in your heart, 'My power and the might of my hand have gained me this wealth.' 18 "And you shall remember the Lord your God, for it is He who gives you power to get wealth, that He may establish His covenant which He swore to your fathers, as it is this day. 19 Then it shall be, if you by any means forget the Lord your God, and follow other gods, and serve them and worship them, I testify against you this day that you shall surely perish. 20 As the nations which the Lord destroys before you, so you shall perish, because you would not be obedient to the voice of the Lord your God.

A CONFESSION OF FAITH

*Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul, praise Him, for He is Thy Health and Salvation!
Join the full throng: Wake, harp and Psalter and song;
Sound forth in glad adoration!*

I believe that God has created me and all creatures. He has given me my body and soul, eyes, ears, and all my bodily members, my mind and all my senses, and still keeps them for me.

*Praise to the Lord, who hath fearfully, wondrously made thee;
Health hath vouchsafed and, when heedlessly falling hath stayed thee. What need or grief ever hath failed of relief?
Wings of His mercy did shade thee.*

God also preserves me by richly and daily providing clothing and shoes, food and drink, house and home, wife and children, land, animals, and all my property and all I need to support this body and life.

*Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth,
Who, as on wings of an eagle, uplifteth, sustaineth.*

Hast thou not seen How thy desires all have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

He protects me from all danger. He guards and defends me from every evil. God does all this because He is my good and gracious Father in heaven, not because of anything I have done to earn or deserve it.

*Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work and defend thee,
Who from the heavens the streams of His mercy doth send thee.
Ponder anew What the Almighty can do,
Who with His love doth befriend thee.*

For all of this it is my duty to thank, praise, serve and obey Him. This is most certainly true!

*Praise to the Lord! Oh, let all that is in me adore Him!
All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him!
Let the Amen Sound from His people again;
Gladly for aye we adore Him.*
