KNOW GOD THROUGH LOVE

Peace Thru Christ Lutheran Church is a confessional Lutheran Church. We proclaim to a world dead in sin that salvation is a gift of God’s grace; that Jesus Christ paid the full sacrificial price—His very life—so that gift of salvation could be ours. Scripture Readings:

Romans 12:1-8

Paul exhorts the congregation in Rome not to be conformed to this world but by the renewing of the Holy Spirit to live in peace and harmony with one another; to work together in love and to appreciate the rich fellowship that they have in Jesus. We of Peace Thru Christ are all different in personality, temperament, appearance, vocation and abilities. Such differences in the world often cause strife, envy, backbiting and slander. It should not be that way in the church. Our differences are meant to complement each other in making up that "one body in Christ."

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God. For I say, through the grace given to me, to everyone who is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think soberly, as God has dealt to each one a measure of faith. For as we have many members in one body, but all the members do not have the same function, so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and individually members of one another. Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, let us prophesy in proportion to our faith; or ministry, let us use it in our ministering; he who teaches, in teaching; he who exhorts, in exhortation; he who gives, with liberality; he who leads, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.

Matthew 16:21-26

Jesus predicts His future suffering, death and resurrection. Peter didn't care to hear such dark talk, so he began to rebuke Jesus for being so "negative." The Savior, in turn, rebuked Peter, and then reminds His followers that true discipleship often means sacrifice.

From that time Jesus began to show to His disciples that He must go to

CLC FINANCIAL REPORT—AUGUST: This report is in your mailbox. The entire CLC indebtedness on the Academic Center (original loan of $1,751,000 in 2010 & the North Hall dorm upgrades of $253,000 in 2017) has been paid in full! Regular congregational Building Fund offerings, special individual offerings --$300,000 in the last 2 or 3 years-- and recently a bequest of nearly $2M has resulted in the final payment of the principal balance of $1,053,871. "But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly as this? For all things come of You, and of Your own we have given You." (1Chron 29:14) We are His people because He has paid our debt in full, and not with gold or silver, but with His holy precious blood! That is why His people stand before Me; If you take out the precious from the vile, You shall be as My mouth. Let them return to you, But you must not return to them. And I will make you to this people a fortified bronze wall; And they will fight against you, But they shall not prevail against you; For I am with you to save you And deliver you," says the Lord. "I will deliver you from the hand of the wicked, And I will redeem you from the grip of the terrible."

Jerusalem, and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day. Then Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, saying, "Far be it from You, Lord; this shall not happen to You!" But He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind Me, Satan! You are an offense to Me, for you are not mindful of the things of God, but the things of men." Then Jesus said to His disciples, "If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it. For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?"

Jeremiah 15:15-21

Sermon Theme:

Christian Witnesses Don't Get What They Deserve!

I: Sometimes we think we deserve something from God for our efforts.

II: We receive what we do not deserve.

O Lord, You know; Remember me and visit me, And take vengeance for me on my persecutors. In Your enduring patience, do not take me away. Know that for Your sake I have suffered rebuke. Your words were found, and I ate them, And Your word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart; For I am called by Your name, O Lord God of hosts. I did not sit in the assembly of the mockers, Nor did I rejoice; I sat alone because of Your hand, For You have filled me with indignation. Why is my pain perpetual And my wound incurable, Which refuses to be healed? Will You surely be to me like an unreliable stream, As waters that fail? Therefore thus says the Lord: "If you return, Then I will bring you back; You shall
